INDIANA TERRITORY.

Vincennes, Oct. 5.

On Monday last the Circuit Court for the first Circuit met at Vincennes, when the following Charge to the Grand Jury was delivered by Judge Raymond:

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury,

Among other considerations which at the present moment press upon the mind, we cannot fail to recollect, that this is the last time on which you will be assembled under the authority of the territory; nor for myself can I fail to recollect, that this is perhaps the last time, that I shall address a Grand Jury of Knox county.

At such a time, gentlemen, it is impossible not to look both forward and backward, backward to the time when the settlement of this country progressed beneath the tomahawk—and forward to a time, when by the gradual extinction of Indian title, Indiana will comprehend the country from the Ohio to Michigan; when the whole of this great and fertile state will be cultivated by industrious farmers, and our merchants will traffic not only south on the Mississippi, but north and east on Michigan, her sister Lakes and the St. Lawrence

That the fabric of republican greatness may rise high and be permanent, its foundation must be laid in justice, mercy and enlightened policy. We all have our predilections, and some of us, doubtless, have prejudices, but that such are the general provisions of our constitution few, I believe, will deny. Time compels me to be brief, but I cannot do justice to my feelings, without adduciug two or three examples.

In perusing this charter of our rights, I was pleased to observe a provision in favor of a class of men, who have been cruelly treated, even by the most enlightened nations. I allude to insolvent debtors.

In Rome, they might not only be sold as slaves, but some inform us, that creditors had the power of cutting the body of the debtor in pieces, each taking a share, proportionate, I presume, to his demand.

In England, Dr. Johnson informs us, that there were, on a moderate estimate 20 thousand debtors confined in jails—that one quarter perished annually by want, anxiety and disease, or in other words, the life of a debtor in those unwholesome prisons, was curtailed to four years.—Four years is indeed a short space of life for a man in the vigor of his faculties, though four years of lingering confinement, counted day by day, will be long to those who endure them. The unfortunate debtor, however honest his life may have been, however industrious his habits, however remote even from the suspicion of fraud, after he has delivered up every cent of his property, is confined at the will of his creditor It is not till within a few years that the smallest provision has been made in England for the debtor's support; even for a deficiency to sustain the public spark of life He was left to the charity of the charitable. Take into view his wife and children, depending on his industry for bread, his own hopeless condition, reflect that insolvency may be your fate or mine, and let me ask whether we have not reason to congratulate ourselves, that we live in a country in which the "person of a debtor, where there is no strong presumption of fraud, shall not be continued in prison, after delivering up his estate for the benefit of his creditors, in such a manner as shall be prescribed by law." May we not say to England, talk as much as you please, of the despotism of Turks and Barbarians, here is a species of civil oppression, which should suffuse the face of an enlightened nation with blushes.

Even in some of the states of the Union, it is not till within a few years, that the cries of suffering humanity, have been regarded. I recollect hearing an instance, in the state of New-York, where a debtor who had been involved by indorsing for a friend, died in prison after sixteen years confinement. Tell me, when he laid down his hoary head never to lift it again, had he reason to congratulate himself, that he lived in a land of Liberty?

I doubt not you have remarked with pleasure, that in our young republic, while those who do not deserve punishment, have a charter for their rights, those who merit it, are to be treated with mercy; that a penal code is to be formed, founded on the principles of reformation and not of vindictive justice. In order that men may respect and love the laws, under which they live, they must see and feel that those laws are just and merciful. Where capital punishments are inflicted for various grades of offences, from a trifling larceny to the most atrocious murder, the laws become odious. Distinctions between crimes are levelled in the minds of the citizens, and the highest offence is committed with almost as little compunction as the least.

But our constitution in the article last quoted, enjoins a more radical and effectual preventative of vice and crime, than any which the vindictive arm of society ever did or can afford. I refer to the 2d section of the IX article. Happy will it be for Indiana, if there ever shall be a provision made "for a general system of education, ascending in regular gradation from township schools to a state University, wherein tuition shall be gratis and equally open to all."

The education of youth ought to be left as little as possible to the zeal, affection and limited means of parents. Many parents are themselves too ignorant to be aware of its benefits, many are too penurious and others too poor, to spare the necessary expense. In the Grecian republics, the great object of Legislators was rather to educate the young, than to govern the old. The laws of Lysurgus relate principally to the education of youth.

In the system of education, contemplated by the constitution, township schools are by far the most important feature. They make but little figure, attract but little notice, but tho' humble in appearance, their effects are wide, deep & permanent. There is a degree of splendor attached to a University, but township schools are incomparably more useful—their effects incomparably greater. Their influence reaches to the very basis of society, and extends to every individual who helps to compose the aggregate mass. To this source and to religious instruction must we look for a permanent reformation of manners, and for that mental discipline which is necessary to form republican citizens—men, who are governed not by appetite and passion but by reason, and by laws the dictate of reason.

Henry the IV of France, has been applauded for having wished, that he might live to see the day when every one of his subjects should be able to have a fowl in his pot. If I were to form a wish, gentlemen, to suit your feelings and mine I would say—may we live to see the day when there shall be a school in every township in Indiana "wherein tuition shall be gratis and equally open to all."

It is not the greatest excellence of the general diffusion of knowledge, that it enables the citizens at large, to transact their ordinary business, to guard their property and prevent impositions. The stores of history, philosophy and reason, all that man has been or has learnt in former ages, is unlocked to the inquisitive eye. The intellectual part of man receives the stimulus necessary for its growth and expansion, and the appetites which govern men as well as brutes, in a state of nature, lose their power in proportion, as a thirst is acquired for intellectual enjoyments

Tho' the sphere of instruction in a township school is limited, it is yet sufficient to inspire a passion for knowledge and while books are so plenty as at the present day, the passion may be easily and cheaply gratified. The instance has frequently occurred in the U. States, where a youth, who has acquired the rudiments of education at a common school has pressed forward unaided, except by his own prolific genius, till he has obtained the highest rank in the department of letters, or the first offices in state—& become the ornament and boast of his country. Need I mention the name of Benjamin Franklin, or add other names, scarcely less distinguished.

We are a republic of Farmers. Farmers have leisure—their occupation disposes the mind to contemplation and philosophy. Would not that leisure be more profitably employed in reading than at the horse race, the card and billiard table, the dram shop or the boxing match?

Recollect, that township school on the plan proposed, would place the Bible in the hands of every youth—suppose that every mind imbibes the pure and sublime morality of that book with the ingredients of its growth, and conceives the effect on the morals and manners of a rising community! How important is this consideration when urged with the most limited views, without any regard to the happiness of a future existence, or even to that consolatory influence, which the Christian religion sheds, like a broad beam of light on the gloomy hour of bidding this world adieu.

Happy should I be, gentlemen, to impress on your minds and to engage you to excite the vigilant attention of your fellow citizens, to this greatest object in a young republic. The means, tho' not ample are yet great, and individual zeal must supply the deficiency. I doubt not you have observed with pleasure, that vice is made to pay a tax to virtue, by the appropriation of fines, assessed for the breach of penal laws to the support of schools, and that a foundation is laid for the establishment of public libraries, on a scale honourable to a young state, by the reservation of ten per cent. in the sales of town lots, in counties hereafter to be formed.

In my charge to you, gentlemen, I do not merely call your attention to the business of the present sitting That business is important; you stand between the government and individuals to enquire who have broken the laws; and I doubt not, will discharge your duty faithfully and conscientuously. In my remarks I have looked beyond the present scene, & I charge you, as you love your children, as you love the land in which they, their children and their children's children are to dwell, that you do not suffer your hands to become weary nor your hearts faint in your endeavors, to have the intention of the constitution with respect to township schools carried into effect.

RICHMOND. Nov. 12.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Yesterday the House began to carve out the business of the Session.

The speaker commenced by appointing the standing Committees of the house viz. A committee for the court of Justice; a committee of privileges and elections; a committee of opposition and grievences; a committee of claims; a committee to examine the state of the memory; a committee to examine the public jail and penitentiary; a committee to examine the executive expenditures; a committee on the subject of roads, and internal navigation; a committee to examine the Register's office; a committee to examine the clerk's office; a committee of finance; a committee to examine the enrolled bills, & a committee of schools and colleges—To these various committees, most of the petitions offered to the House are submitted—who examine their subject matter, and prepare a statement of the case, with their opinion thereupon to the house

The same clerks, as had been appointed to these committees for the last session, were re-elected for the present.

A resolution was offered directing the Public printer to send by mail—— Copies of each sheet of the Journal to every county in the State—The manner to fill this blank with ten and six copies were successively lost—The one to fill it with four prevailed by a small majority. A substitute was then offered, that instead of sending them by mail, it should be the duty of the Public Printer to send an extra entire copy to each county, to be deposited in the Clerk's office—another motion was then offered, to instruct the Delegates of each county to deposit one of the Copies, with which they are already furnished, at the Clerk's office.

In this stage of the business, Mr. Gilmer observed, that as there appeared some diversity in the views of the members, it would be best to take time for consideration—more esspecially, as it was a respect due to the governor's message to act upon it—He therefore moved to lay these resolutions upon the table—which the house agreed to.

Mr. Hay (of Henrico,) presented the petition of George Savage, complaining of the undue election of Wm. B. Chamberlayne, one of the sitting members from Henrico County—Referred to the committee of the privileges and elections.

Mr. Mercer (of Loudoun) presented a petition from "the Loudoun company for the encouragement of agriculture and manufactures," praying for an act of incorporation—but it were inexpedient to grant that request, then to suspend the penalties of the act of the last session for the suppression of unchartered banks, by the passage of a law protecting them against its operation, and enabling them to collect their loans, and close the business of the company in a fair & honorable way—The memorialists urge, that since the passage of the act of the last assembly, they have endeavoured by regular curtails, to settle and close the business of the institution, and to avoid the violation of the law, but that they have found it impossible, within the time therein prescribed to accomplish their object. This petition was refered to a select committee.

Mr Colson (of Berkeley) also presented a petition of certain inhabitans of Berkeley county, stating the want of a banking capital among them, that their circulating medium is of so motley a character that the paper of not less than ninety foreign banks circulates among them, that one advantage of the banking institution among themselves would be to purify their circulating medium by excluding foreign paper, that much of their actual medium is from banks to the west of their county, which is at a depreciated value of ten per cent. in Baltimore money, that it is well known, the profits of these country banks depends much upon the extensive circulation of their paper: so, that the petitioners are in sort paying a seignorage upon the coinage of other bank paper;—a privilege which, with the consent of Virginia Legislature, could as well be exercised by our citizens—They attempt to controvert the objections made against the extensions of banking capital. They urge, that the commercial transactions of their part of the state are exclusively to the district of Alexandria and Baltimore, but the papers of the banks in those places cannot, according to the existing laws, be received for taxes. For these & other reasons, they prayer a charter for a Banking Company, organized in the year 1815, called "The Bank of Martinsburg in Virginia," the dissolution of which company would make a heavy addition to the pecuniary embarrassments which now press upon the petitioners, but that if this prayer cannot be granted, they pray the incorporation of another company, for the purposes of banking, in the county of Berkely, placing their notes upon the same footing with those of the existing banks, in the payment of the public due, Referred to the same select committee as the last.

On motion of Mr. Hay, the following resolution was adopted;

Resolved, that so much of the governor's communication, as relates to the bank of Virginia, and the Farmers bank of Virginia, be referred to a committee who shall be authorized to enquire into the state of the said banks, and to report by bill, or otherwise.

And the following committee were appointed for this purpose, viz. Messrs. Hay, Giles, Tazewell, Mercer of Spottsylvania, Robertson, Mercer, of Loudoun, Jamison, Thompson, Yancey, of Buckingham, Towles, Chrcatt, Baker, Smith, of Wythe, Blackburn, Pollard, Anthony, Scott, Goodridge, and Marshall.

(Before the adjournment of the house

Mr. Hay gave notice to the members of the committee, that they were to meet in the evening at the Farmers Bank.)

A resolution was offered for the appointment of a Chaplain to open the session every morning with prayers—which was lost, Ayes 75, Noes 85.

Petitions were presented from the Clerks of the county courts in several counties for an increase of their compensation, referred to a committee.

Adjourned till this day, 12 o'clock.

ALEXANDRIA.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16.

His Excellency Mr. Daschkoff, the Russian minister in this coutry, has sent a courier to his government, in the ship Ann Maria, which sailed on Saturday for Liverpool.—N. Y. Gaz.

The sailing last summer of the United States sloop of war Prometheus, on board of which, it now appears, Mr. Coles, the private secretary of the president of the United Sates, was sent to Russia, joined to some other circumstances which have come to our knowledge, make us fear that a very serious misunderstanding has taken place with Russia.—ib

JOHN Q. ADAMS, ESQ.

Extract Dated

Georgetown, Nov. 12.

"I am very credibly informed, that John Quincy Adams is to be recalled from London, and to be appointed Secretary of State under Mr. Monroe. You will no doubt be pleased with the prospect of such an appointment, not only because Mr. Adams gave irresistible evidence of his sterling patriotism and virtue in the worst of times, but because of his transcendant abilities as a diplomatist and a statesman."

From the Pacific Ocean.

We have been favored with the following information brought by Capt. Edes in the Beverly, from the Pacific, via Canton, &c,

Boston Centinel.

On the 9th Dec. 1815, His excellency Don Jose Marco del Pont, President of Chili, and suite, arrived at Valparaiso, and commenced his government by ordering a gallows to be erected at St. Jean de Chili, and declaring by proclamation that all persons favoring a revolution should be executed. Every preparation was making to repel the invasion of a body of patriots from Buenos Ayres, reported to be 3500 strong, and commanded by Gen. St. Martin.—They reached Mendoza, on the Eastern side of the Cordilleras, on the 12 January 1816; but it was believed the season will not admit of their advancing further. The president of Chili had 5000 regulars' a part of which were Tallevarians from Europe. Effective measures had been taken to prevent any of the Chilinese from joining the patriots in Mendoza. In January, an order was issued proclaiming, that if any householder was not on his premises within eight days from the date thereof, his property should be confiscated to the King, and his family imprisoned, and further, should any munitions of war be found secreted in any out-house, and the owner refuse to deliver them when called for, he should suffer death.

There were in the castle, as prisoners, the former Patriot president of Chili, a Mr. Lastre, former governor of Valparaiso, and three other distinguished patriots.

Messrs, Lewis Blanque, formerly Vice Consul for the United States at Valparaiso, Mr. Tasalas, and several other Chilenian patriots had been banished to the Island of Juan Fernandez, which Island was talked of as the residence of many more as soon as the government had an opportunity to send them there.

The following persons belonging to the United States, were residing in Chili, Feb. 1. 1816, viz. Jesse Ockington Paul Davis, Thomas Munroe, and Charles Harper, of Boston; Daniel Hide, Beverly; Joseph Smith, New-Haven; John Thomas, Nantucket; Daniel Coleman, L. Island; Simon Parrison, New-York; John Davis, Potomac Creek; Lee Laws and William Saunders, colored men; Daniel Coleman, William Johnston, and Thomas Johnston, formerly of the Essex frigate, John Ayres, marine, late of the Essex, had been confined six months but had been released, and was on board the Indus, Page, of Salem. 18 Englishmen and one Prussian were also left in Chili.

The Beverly left Macoa, China, the 19th of June where Lord Amherst, the British Ambassador, was momently expected. It was said Sir George Staunton would join the embassy; and that its object was to obtain permission to visit the manufactories in the interior of China; but which it was the opinion of the most respectable Hong Merchants in Canton would not be allowed.

The Beverly arrived in Table Bay, Cape of Good Hope on the 5th, and left there the 18th of September. On the 29th July, the British frigate Revolutionaire, of 38 guns, and a sloop of war went on shore, in a heavy gale, in Simon' Bay, and received much damage; the former when heaving out parted her carcening tackles, came up, and killed all the people who were at work on her bottom.

The British sloop of war Spey, was supposed to be bound to Tristan de Cuna, as the English were about settling the Island; and it was said was intended for the furure residence of Napoleon!—Great reductions of the army had been made at the Cape, the 83d regiment had been ordered to Ceylon, and others to Europe. Sailed in company with the British frigate Thais, having on board the former commander in chief. The Racoon was to sail immediately for Ascension, to look out and stop at St. Helena, should Bona run off with it.

On the 29th the Beverly passed within four or five leagues of St. Helena, & saw no cruisers. Capt. E. was informed at the Cape, by a British officer recently from St. Helena, that Bonaparte and Bertrand had quarrelled, and the cause was imputed to Madame Bertrand's not having treated the Emperor with the respect she formerly did.

It is added, that the Earl af Moira, Governor General of India, and lady, stopped at St. Helena, and called on the ex emperor; but he was not to be seen, excusing himself by pleading indisposition.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13.

The Bank of the United States will commence discounting in Philadelphia in the beginning of January, and the several offices or branches at Boston, New-York, Baltimore, Charleston, Savannah and New Orleans it is expected will be ready to commence about the same time. It is already well ascertained, that the directors of this great National Institution are disposed to act with the most friendly liberality in their inte course with the State Banks, and all apprehensions of injury resulting from the commencement of its operations, are changed into the pleasing certainty of benefit to the merchants in particular, and to the nation in general.

The offer made of ten millions in Specie by a respectable mercantile house in London, on terms highly advantageous to the Bank, will probably be accepted, and will at once effect the restoration of gold and silver to current circulation.

Gold Leaf.

Among the manufactures of our country, we notice that of Gold Leaf, which is now made in this town by Mr. Lauriat of a quality fully equal to any imported, and much cheaper.

Boston Centinel.

Vegetable Wonder.

Trenton, Nov. 11.

The immense vegetable productions of this no summer year demands the attention of Agriculturalists to the cause. An English Turnipe has been raised in Medford, by Mr. Samuel Cutter, which weighed twenty one pounds, four ounces, and measured four feet and three inches in circumference.

New-York Nov. 12

In yesterdays Gazette, we announced the arrival of the Amelia, from the Isle of France. The following, extracted from her log book, was handed to us by capt. Barry;—Sailed from the Isle of France July 28. The brig Gen. Jackson, 73 days from Teneriffe for Madras, was spoken July 14, in lat 17, long. 80, by the British ship Elizabeth, who was spoken by the Amelia, Sept. 18, in lat 5, 48, long. 23, 35. Oct. 18, was boarded by a Carthagenian pirate brig, of 10 guns, and about 70 men, of all nations, who took all our water, except two casks, and ordered all our crew on board their brig, when they plundered the Amelia, taking from the captain a quantity of wearing apparel, and sundry stores from the vessel. In lat 25. 30, long 59. 30, left his steering to the SW. with the Bourbon flag flying, apparently deep with plunder. I judge him to be hovering about the Caycos, for the people asked me at times how far I thought myself from him, and inquired for a schooner, his consort in villany. Nov 3, at 32, long 70, 10, spoke schr. Tryall, M'Loud, 6 days from Newbern for St, Barts. 4th, lat. 32, 30, long. 71, schr. Rover, Pope, 25 days from Martinico for Boston.—Left at the Isle of France, brig Charles, Lovett, for Boston in 7 days; ship Marmion, Stone, for Bengal, in a few days. The brig Ludlow, of Boston, had been sold to the French.

To the Public.

Having understood that certain persons who are desirous of obtaining the appointment of Harbor Master, which I now hold, have circulated a report that I have resigned that office, and have by means of this story, prevailed upon several respectable citizens to recommend them as proper persons to fill the pretended vacancy—I beg leave respectfully to inform my fellow citizens, that I never did resign the said office which is all important to me in my old age, nor have I any idea of doing so. It is true that I have been afflicted with an illness which has prevented me from giving that PERSONAL attention to the duties of the office which I wished: but, thank God, I am fast recovering, and hope soon to be able to attend to business as usual.

In the mean time, I humbly trust, that my fellow citizens will not be imposed upon, to give their aid in promoting the views of my enemies, and thus to deprive me of the cniel support of my old age.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Maligant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to cary off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during th warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
